Four Years of a Bright New Sunrise

On a cool overcast autumn morning in Studio City on October the 13th, 2001, four alcoholics met in small room in the back of The Hot Wired Cafe on Riverside Drive. They were there to listen to an enthusiastic guy share about the 12 steps from the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. This young man, in his own zealousness, was attempting to duplicate what his sponsor had been doing for years at a much larger meeting some 300 miles away. After a few weeks he began to realize his own limitations conveying the material and began calling "real speakers" to come to the meeting to share their experience with the Big Book and the specific steps of recovery. The new improvised meeting format worked! Those four original members still attend The Sunrise Group and have been joined by dozens of others. They meet every Saturday Morning and many of the Sunrise Group members went on to start The Sunset Group in October 2004.

Both groups are still growing and your attendance is always welcomed!

Tony and Joe both get DUIs around the same time and are court-ordered to AA. Joe stops going as soon as he gets his last paper signed, but Tony sticks around. A few months later, they run into each other. After some small talk, Joe asks, "Where are you headed?"

Tony says, "To an AA meeting."

Joe says, "Really? How long do you have to go for?"

Tony replies, "Probably for the rest of my life."

"My God!" Joe exclaims. "What judge did YOU have?"
